

Horse & Buggy Country Inn

Horse and Buggy Country Inn Bed and Breakfast is located in the rolling hills of the South Fork Mennonite Community in Liberty, Kentucky. This great weekend getaway or overnight lodging is a rustic, log cabin bed and breakfast that has delighted many coming to enjoy the Lake Cumberland region. It was founded by Becky Martin, daughter of Sandra Tucker, matriarch and visionary of the Galilean Children's Home.

Sandra told her daughter about a dream that she had about Becky opening a bed and breakfast. Becky is very humble, like the rest of her family; however she knew if Mamma was suggesting it, it had to be God's plan for her. Today, Becky and her family enjoy the many guests that come to this beautiful four bedroom log cabin that is nestled in pastures with cows, horses, and wildlife. Becky's cousin, Joey Tucker, co-owns and operates Woods Creek Outfitters, which offers hunting trips on their 2,500+ acres of managed land. If overnight lodging is desired, they can create packages that include overnight lodging, hunting trips, meals, and lots of fun. This is a perfect place to hunt for deer and turkey. Spring, fall, and winter are perfect times to enjoy the bountiful hunting in the area and these hunting excursions have been a huge hit with outdoorsmen around the country. There are plenty of places to walk, hike, or take day trips to the many attractions in Casey County, including "Annie's" favorite, the South Fork Mennonite Community. Continental breakfast is provided at the Horse and Buggy Country Inn and there are plenty of restaurants in the area, including the Bread of Life Café - their family restaurant that offers a scrumptious buffet with a fresh salad bar, delicious desserts, and much more. They also have delicious meals you can order from their menu. Most of the marinas are within easy reach and Somerset and Russell Springs are less than thirty minutes away. Come explore this simple lifestyle and enjoy a wonderful overnight stay at the Horse and Buggy Country Inn Bed and Breakfast. I am sure you will not be disappointed.
