

Key Associates Waterfront Realty

When it comes to buying or selling lake property in the beautiful Lake Cumberland area, one name stands out above the rest, Key Associates Waterfront Realty. The name itself suggests their specialty in dealing with waterfront homes and land. Key Realty's office is perched on the banks of Lake Cumberland with an excellent view of the vast & wonderful lake for which it serves. They even have their own webcam focused on the lake showing viewers in real-time the beauty of the 3rd largest man-made lake east of the Mississippi.

Yes, no doubt about it, no company in the area sells more lake property than Key Associates and their professional sales staff are dedicated to serving the needs of both buyers and sellers. Co-owners Kathy Sears and Nelson Weaver partnered up in 2002 with a philosophy of hard work and outstanding customer service and their efforts have paid off as they have grown into one of the largest, most successful real estate companies in the area. The Realtors at Key know the area well around Lake Cumberland and know the real estate business inside and out. If you are a buyer, they will help you find that dream home you have always wanted. If you are selling, they know the market and have the best marketing techniques in the area!

Foremost to both the buyers & sellers is Key's helpful website, www.goLakeCumberland.com. With a wealth of information accessible to the customers they serve, goLakeCumberland.com is a one-stop shop for not only real estate properties with over 120 virtual tours available and the ability to search the entire Multiple Listing Service of the Lake Cumberland area, but they have links to their live webcam, information about Lake Cumberland, hotels & cabin rentals, school info, builders & developments, fishing & boating, local mortgage companies, insurance companies & more. All you need to purchase your next home in the Lake Cumberland area is available right at your fingertips.

Key Associates Waterfront Realty has built its business one satisfied customer at a time and looks forward to the opportunity to serve your real estate needs.
